40 minutes a half. Two halves.

Winston Churchill once called this game a “game for hooligans.”

We say it's a game for jackals.

A chance to make history...

The Dallas Jackals have a chance to make history: win a game.

At one point in the match on Saturday, the Jackals were six points away from tying the Utah Warriors. Utah collected 21 points in the first half while Dallas registered 10. Dallas charged out in the second half with a quick try. The Jackals outscored the Warrior Nation 15-12 in the second half, but the final score was 33-25 in favor of Utah.

The Pack seek to outscore the visiting Seattle Seawolves beyond one half. With captain JP Aguirre, bruising forwards Lucas Bur and Sam Golla, and scoring led by Eric Naposki and Jeronimo Gomez Vara - each with two tries - the 2023 Dallas Jackals squad can make history.

The captain JP Aguirre feels good heading into the tilt against Seattle.

“As a team I think we’re building up I think this is a game we’d want to play. One of the top teams in the conference,” Aguirre said. “It’s going to be a good measure for us”

Seattle currently sits third overall in the conference. Their top scorer, Jordan Chait, has scored 31 of their 53 points through two games. The offensive side of Seattle’s game has relied on mistakes by opponents, leading to four total tries being seen across two games.

Offense for the Jackals has exploded in the second half during the opening two weeks. The home opener saw two tries and one successful conversion in the latter 40 minutes. In round two, four Jackals got on the board. Jero Gomez Vara posted his second try in as many games while back Eric Naposki produced two straight tries in Utah.

The second try featured the 2021 MLR Draft selection juking out the lone Warrior defender in his path.

Argentiniens Juampi Zeiss and Nicolas Revol picked up tries last weekend as well.

These sides last faced off at Choctaw Stadium on Mar. 19, 2022. Naposki registered one try before the Jackals fell too far behind. Dallas is better across scrums and set pieces this year, making Friday's tilt an intriguing contest for all of Major League.

Some players shared their thoughts earlier this week:

Naposki: I've been here since game one for the Jackals last season. We've come close to that win a couple of times now. It would be a fantastic feeling for all the work that's been put in, all the work that's been put in the offseason as well. I genuinely don't know how I'd feel, but I know it would feel pretty good.

Aguirre: It will feel amazing. I think the boys deserve it, the organization deserves it, the fans deserve it. I can't wait for that moment.

Bur: It will be awesome because we are training so much [and] I think we deserve it. The fans also deserve it for the teammates that come here every day, put the maximum effort in.

Do you think the Jackals will pick up the franchise's first ever win?

STATE OF THE (RUGBY) UNION

As we start chasing the egg at home match #2 of the 2023 season, I wanted to remind everyone of the Dallas Jackals core values: passion, tradition, respect, family, and character.

Our crowd tonight reflects those values. Look around you. Whether you are a season seat member or a first time Jackals attendee, the odds are that you are here tonight with family or friends. More than 60% of our fans say that is who they attend Jackals matches with.

Our theme tonight also fits those shared values, as we honor all Hispanics and Latinos on Hispanic Heritage night. Respect, family, tradition are all deeply ingrained in the culture.

Special thanks for our Hispanic celebration goes first to tonight's sponsor, BGD Digital Marketing. CEO and founder Brittney Garcia-Dumas is so key to tonight's programming, she is pulling double duty as our Spanish Speaking on-field host!

Britney is also on the Board of the Arlington Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. On the Main concourse you will see information tables from members of that chamber such as Done Staffing, Andrea Chimaras Web and On-Line Business Development, Reform Medical, Fluffy Cake (YUM!), Luna Rosa Academy, Luci's Factory and Jones Building.

While you are on the concourse checking out these Hispanic owned businesses (and Jackals supporters) check out our merch stand behind section 108. The Jackals are offering limited edition "Vamos Jackals" hoodies, hats and T-shirts. At the nearby concession stands you will also find some special food favorites that are part of the Jackals Hispanic Heritage Salute.
