WHAT IS RUGBY

40 minutes a half.

15 players per team on the pitch.

It's the physicality of football and the footwork of soccer.

Winston Churchill once said, "Soccer is a gentleman's game played by hooligans, and rugby is a hooligans' game played by gentlemen".

We say it's a game for jackals.

JACKALS SECURE FIRST MLR WIN

“Blow the whistle. The game is over.”

That’s all Alex Tucci could think, who was less than 10 meters from the referee, when the Dallas Jackals forced a Toronto Arrows turnover that ensured a Jackals win.

The Dallas Jackals captured their first franchise victory with timely tries beat the Toronto Arrows 10-9 at Choctaw Stadium on College Night presented by Coca-Cola on Apr. 1.

Sam Golla and Dewald Kotze registered Dallas’ tries. Golla, the first selection in the 2023 MLR Collegiate Draft, juked a lone Toronto defender to register his first try of the season midway through the second half. With no one else around him, he made sure the try was worth seven as he touched down in the center of the try zone.

Trailing by four, Kotze successfully dove into the try zone to regain the lead for Dallas with nearly 20 minutes left in regulation.

JACKALS SECURE FIRST MLR WIN

Head coach Agustin Cavalieri dropped down to his knees - knowing he just made Major League Rugby and franchise history - upon the match's conclusion. Players hugged on the pitch and jumped up and lifted their arms in relief. Training staff and rugby ops personnel sprinted on the field to share the moment with the players. Fans stayed long after and leaned over the railings to chant "Let's Go Jackals" and get high-fives from players.

Everyone went home happy.

"We feel that this game was very important and for me it was a very important moment. The day before, my two best friends arrived - my wife and my daughter - so it was very nice to have this moment with them," Cavalieri said.

"It's nice to have a bye week, but at the same time it's like now I'm itching to get that next win. That's where I'm at and I feel like a lot of the guys have that mindset as well," Tucci said.
